The Mayor invited Cllr Davenport to reflect on her year in Office.

Cllr Davenport stated that as she had no experience as a deputy Mayor the year as Mayor had been initially daunting, her aim was for the council to work together for the whole of the community. However the devastating floods of June 2012 forced her to switch her priorities to supporting individuals.

In her year many highlights were obvious, the Town Criers competition, the Hebden Bridge Food Festival, the Valley of Lights, meeting and developing relations with our twin towns of St Pol and Warstein and the Remembrance Services - where fallen servicemen had their names called out. These events have contributed to bringing the Valley back to life.

Cllr Davenport thanked the Town Council and the many other Town & Parish Councillors who had supported and advised her in her year as Mayor of Hebden Royd. Cllr Davenports advice was to be yourself, don't change, keep your friends and to enjoy it.

Cllr Davenport presented gifts to the Mayors Secretary, the Neighbourhood Manager, the Town Clerk and to all members of the council.

Cllr Davenport presented Calder Valley Search and Rescue with a cheque for £1714.70 as the beneficiary of her Mayors Charity and a certificate from the Town Council to thank them for all that they do within our community.
